FESTIVAL CHAIRMAN'S Address

A Chairde,

It is a real pleasure to welcome you all to this, our 29th Ennis Trad Festival. I know that not only will you all experience the very best of music, but that many great memories will also be made at this year's Festival.

Personally, I would like to extend a special welcome to all our friends and visitors who have come to Ennis, from all over the world. Your involvement in our festival, whether as a listener, musician, singer or dancer, is an integral part of the annual musical landscape in Ennis and will continue to uplift our spirits every year and make all our work worthwhile.

I would like to thank the Festival Committee for their long hours of work in organizing this weekend, it is a mammoth task but seeing our historic town alive with ceol and craic is a fantastic reward. The Festival Committee owes a great deal to our sponsors, who willingly give the required financial support to make this weekend a success. I would encourage you all to support the local businesses who have advertised in this booklet.

I would like to acknowledge especially Clare County Council, Ennis Municipal District and Clare Arts for their unwavering, annual support.

This year's Festival has an outstanding programme of events, which we know will cater for all ages and abilities. We have our concerts, with McSherry, Quinn and McIluff on Friday, the magnificent Réalta on Saturday night and our own Tony Linnane, Mary Bergin, Éamonn O'Riordan and Conor Connolly on Sunday night. We are especially proud to welcome Monday night's Finale Concert guests, Robbie Hannan, Paddy Glackin and the legendary Andy Irvine - lifelong icons to most of us and a personal highlight of the festival for me.

We have a fantastic array of CD Launches over the weekend, a great opportunity to support working musicians. We are continuing our Masterclasses, featuring the very best of tutors, which complements our Trad 4 Teens- an enormously popular, well attended session for our younger musicians.

Our Session Trail is once again, bursting at the seams with great combinations of top-class musicians. The sessions are open to all and run throughout the weekend. The always hotly contested Trad Quiz is on Sunday at 1pm in Knox's- feel free to test your Trad knowledge! Great fun, for charity, with spot prizes and craic go leor, and of course, the inimitable Ollie Mullooly will have the town of Ennis, hopping to the very best of Trad at the world-famous ETF Trad Discos!

Finally, we wish you a thoroughly enjoyable Festival weekend and hope you will be here to join us for the big one in 2024!

WELCOME from the Mayor of Ennis Municipal District

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to Ennis, a town synonymous with Irish music, for the 2023 Ennis Trad Fest.

The Ennis Trad Fest is now well established as one of the most important events in the traditional music calendar, and the 2023 instalment promises to be no exception.

We are truly fortunate to have such a vibrant traditional music scene in County Clare, and to have a festival that brings together such outstanding local, national and international musical talent.

My fellow Councillors in the Ennis Municipal District and I are delighted to support the festival to ensure that the organisers, musicians and visitors have the supports needed to make Ennis Trad Fest 2023 a success.

I am sure that audiences this year will be treated to another wonderful festival of traditional Irish music. Enjoy.

Cllr Pat Daly,
Mayor of Ennis Municipal District

WELCOME from the Cathaoirleach of Clare County Council

I am delighted to welcome you all to the historic town of Ennis for the 2023 Ennis Trad Fest.

This year marks the 29th year of the festival, which prides itself on being the 'Musicians' Festival' - run by musicians, for musicians.

The Ennis Trad Fest has been a huge success over the years thanks to the hard work and dedication of the organising committee.

Clare County Council is delighted to support the Ennis Trad Fest again this year, and I commend all those involved in organising and taking part in the exciting schedule of events.

The Trad Fest offers our local musicians and hospitality businesses the opportunity to showcase the best our county town has to offer. I hope that everyone in Ennis over the coming days will enjoy the festivities.

Cllr Joe Cooney,
Cathaoirleach, Clare County Council

SEAMUS O'KANE

For the past 30 years, Seamus has been a faithful attendee at our Trad Festival. Yearly, Síle Boylan sent the names of seisiún players who would be delighted to be invited, as part of the northern contingent. He was always included in our seisiún trails, playing with the legends for whom he showed such great respect. Names that were for so many musicians like him, were only to be seen on TV, or heard on the radio. On discussing the festival, he claims that it was here that he developed friendships and learned so much from players from other parts of the country.

To reward his perseverance we have judged him a suitable festival opener.

JOHN M<sup>C</sup>SHERRY
BRENDAN QUINN
& FRANCIS M<sup>C</sup>ILDUFF

John McSherry, Brendan Quinn and Francis McIliduff are three phenomenal musicians who first got together as a trio at Belfast's Féile Trad Trail in August 2022. When the trio began playing together at Féile, the depth of their musical connection and rapport was instantly evident, so much so that they decided to record an album together. With "dualling" uilleann pipes, soaring whistles, interweaving harmonies, rock steady bodhrán and guitar grooves, the tunes and songs are delivered with a confidence, energy and drive that only a live approach can create.

RÉALTA

Dynamic Ulster-based group Réalta features Conor Lamb (uilleann pipes / whistles), Deirdre Galway (guitar), Dermot Mulholland (bouzouki / double bass / banjo / vocals), Dermot Moynagh (bodhrán) and Loïc Bléjean (uilleann pipes / whistles). Each musician's infectious energy, impressive musicianship and deep love for the music is evident throughout every performance.

Audiences can expect a special journey through energetic reels, rhythmic jigs, soulful airs and thought provoking songs, blending words and melodies from sources both old and new.

CIARÁN'S BAR

Ciarán's Bar is a family run business situated on Francis Street in the heart of Ennis town. Known worldwide for its Traditional Irish Music, Guinness and Craic. Voted by the Irish Times as one of the top ten GAA pubs in the country. Best 'pint' over the crossbar at Ciarán's.

Live music every Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Francis Street, Ennis, Co. Clare ☎ 086 - 867 4695

ROBBIE HANNAN & PADDY GLACKIN

Robbie Hannan was born in Belfast and raised in the nearby town of Hollywood, Co Down. The piping of Séamus Ennis, Willie Clancy and Tommy Reck made a huge impression on him. He was chairman of Na Píobairí Uilleann from 2006 until 2010.

Born and raised in Dublin, Paddy has been greatly influenced by the fiddle playing of John Doherty and other exponents of Donegal fiddle music and he is also greatly interested in the music of West Clare and Sliabh Luachra.

Together they recorded the iconic duet album Séidean Sí in 1995.

TONY LINNANE & MARY BERGIN

In the world of traditional Irish music, Tony Linnane is renowned as a fiddle player of outstanding ability. His distinctive playing has superb fluency and flow in its style and is characterised by impeccable technique and a wealth of feeling and sensitivity.

Mary Bergin has been a role model for generations of whistle players. Brightly ornamented but uncluttered, her playing is distinctive with a crisp articulation. In 2000 she was awarded TG4's Gradam Ceoil for Traditional Musician of the year.

RACHEL WALKER & AARON JONES

Bringing together one of Scotland's finest Gaelic singers and songwriters with one of the country's foremost folk singers and accompanists, Rachel Walker and Aaron Jones celebrate songs both from the traditional and contemporary repertoire with a focus on vocal harmony and sensitive arrangements.

CONOR CONNOLLY

TG4 Young Musician of the Year for 2019, Conor is a button accordion, piano player and singer from Clarinbridge, Co. Galway. He hails from an area steeped in Irish music that produced legendary players like Joe Cooley and the late Joe Burke. He cites many varied sources and inspirations like Cooley, Burke, Tony McMahon, Charlie Harris and pipers like Willie Clancy, Séamus Ennis and Seán McKiernan along with the great Sligo fiddlers from the early 20th century.

Conor has toured and performed extensively and is a regular at the summer schools at home and abroad. He represented Ireland at the World Expo in Dubai in 2021.

ÉAMONN O'RIORDAN

Éamonn O'Riordan grew up in West Limerick. He started playing the tin whistle when he was 7 and the flute at 10 years of age. He learnt a lot of music from West Limerick musicians like the great flute players Donal O' Sullivan and Francis O' Connor. He has been living in Ennis for the last 15 years and is a highly sought-after player for his bright, driving, profoundly rhythmic dance music. In recent years his collaboration with Tony Linnane has provided much joy to fans of traditional music.

ANDY IRVINE

Living icon Andy Irvine is a legendary singer/songwriter. Having travelled the world with bands such as Sweeney's Men, Patrick Street, Planxty, and more recently Mozaik, Andy continues to pursue new combinations and styles of music. He has broadened his musical horizons over the course of his forty-year career to encompass the musical styles of countries he visits, such as the Balkan folk style of playing.

Between the achievements of his solo, group work and collaborations, he is a highly revered troubadour of the Irish music world. Andy Irvine never fails to deliver a pulsating, heartfelt performance!
