Festival Chairman's Address

It is my great pleasure to welcome you all to the Ennis Trad Festival, which this year is proudly celebrating its 30th anniversary. Since its inception back in 1994, this annual celebration of Clare's musical and cultural heritage has drawn musicians and visitors from all over the world and this year will be no exception. We have planned a fantastic programme of music, song and dance, which I have no doubt will keep you all entertained from morning till night.

I am delighted to extend a warm welcome to all our friends from near and far who are once again making their way to Ennis to be part of this event. A very special welcome to all those devoted stalwarts who have been part of the festival since the very beginning. I hope you will agree that we have stayed true to the founding ethos of a festival that is run 'for musicians by musicians'. We keep this principle at the heart of everything that we do and we hope this year's celebrations will leave you all with many happy memories to keep and stories to share.

My heartfelt thanks go the Festival Committee who have worked tirelessly to bring this event to fruition. I am incredibly proud of our achievements as a team during our decade-long tenure at the helm of the Ennis Trad Festival. I also want to express my gratitude to our many patrons whose generous sponsorship has been invaluable to us - and I would encourage you all to support the local businesses that are advertised in our Festival programme. A special mention goes to Clare County Council, Ennis Municipal District, Clare Arts, and Wild Atlantic Music Tours for their continued support and assistance.

To celebrate our 30 year milestone, this year's packed programme includes concerts, masterclasses, trad discos, CD and book launches, Trad 4 Teens, and the largest session trail in Ireland! We are thrilled to have the one and only Mike McGoldrick Big Band performing in concert on Friday night. Mike has been a great friend of our festival for many years and it's always a joy to welcome him back to Ennis. On Saturday night we have a spectacular night of music planned as 'one of our own', the incomparable Sharon Shannon, takes to the stage to headline our midnight concert. Our traditional Sunday night concert will feature some of the very finest in Irish traditional music, including Brighde Chaimbeul, Tracy Ryan, Leonard Barry and many more. We will round off the weekend on Monday with the powerful Eoghan Ó Ceannabháin, followed by four of the very best with Gino Lupari having the unenviable task of keeping Gerry, Dermot, and Tim in line!

The Ennis Trad Festival is a musician's festival. Christy Moore said, 'if it's music you want, you should go to Clare' and he wasn't wrong. Music is what we do best in Clare and we can't wait to share it with you. So, get out there and join in the sessions, go to the concerts, hear the music, meet the people, and see everything that this extraordinary town has to offer.

On its 30th birthday, let's make this year's Ennis Trad Festival the best one yet.

CLARE COUNTY COUNCIL

Foreword | Mayor of Ennis Municipal District

“A chairde,

It is my privilege and pleasure as Mayor of Ennis Municipal District to officially welcome visitors from all over Ireland, Europe and the World to the 30th Ennis Trad Fest 2024.

As the then Mayor in 2018 when I welcomed Ennis Trad Fest visitors to the then 25th Ennis Trad Fest, I was struck by the overwhelming commitment of the organisers, the superb musical talent to be enjoyed, and the number of visitors and musicians who have made this annual festival a fixed date in their calendars.

In its 30th year, the Ennis Trad Festival has become a landmark event on the traditional musical calendar. It is a celebration of the town's proud heritage and reputation as a leading influence in Irish traditional music. This festival serves to promote and preserve Irish traditional music by producing a wide-ranging, quality programme of events.

Visitors to our town will be kept entertained throughout the week by a series of concerts, masterclasses, CD launches, ceilithe and numerous other fun events. The quality of the programme of events is matched by the many host venues located throughout the town, and by the significant efforts of the organising committee and volunteers involved.

As you will observe, our beautiful medieval County town is undergoing major public realm enhancements. Please pardon the inconvenience caused, and please return to the 31st Ennis Trad Fest next year to enjoy the festival and the finished enhanced townscape.

Is mise le meas,

Cllr. Clare Colleran Molloy | Mayor of Ennis Municipal District

Welcome | Cathaoirleach of Clare County Council

Tá fáilte romhat go léir go hInis!

As Cathaoirleach of Clare County Council it is my pleasure to welcome you to both county Clare and the county town of Ennis for the 30th year of the Ennis Trad Festival.

Over the past three decades this event has grown to become one of the most important events in the traditional music calendar, priding itself on being the “Musician’s Festival” – run by musicians, for musicians.

But you don’t have to be a musician to appreciate the talent and skill, craic agus ceoil, on display over the next five days – as the best in Irish music will be provided through Session Trails, concerts, Céilí, Trad Discos etc..... We are indeed fortunate to have such a vibrant traditional music scene here in County Clare, which is due in no small part to the generation of musicians who share their talents with us all and pass their skills on to the next generation.

Events like the Ennis Trad Festival further showcases and supports the traditional music scene in Ennis and Clare, and for this I sincerely thank the organising committee. Their hard work and dedication is very much appreciated.

I am sure that everyone who attends the festival will enjoy the festivities and appreciate all the town of Ennis has to offer.

Clare County Council is delighted to support the Ennis Trad Festival once again and looks forward to welcoming you back for the start of the fourth decade of the Ennis Trad Festival next year!

Cllr Alan O’Callaghan | Cathaoirleach, Clare County Council

CYRIL O'DONOGHUE

I would like to take this opportunity to remember my great friend and long-time musical partner, Cyril O'Donoghue, who very sadly passed away in September this year. An outstanding musician and singer, Cyril was a familiar figure at the Ennis Trad Festival and I know that anyone who knew him, played with him, or ever listened to him will feel his loss this year. We will all have to play that bit louder over the weekend so that he can hear us. Rest in peace Dc.

⊗ Concert - Main Acts ⊗

The Mike McGoldrick Big Band

Friday - Michael McGoldrick, from Manchester, England, is a multi-instrumentalist and composer, playing wooden flute, whistles and uilleann pipes. Since his debut solo release, "Morning Rory" in 1996, Mike's ground-breaking albums have been an inspiration to generations of musicians.

The Sharon Shannon Band

Saturday - Sharon Shannon's career has seen her tour the world over her 40 years. The genre-defying star has achieved multi-platinum album sales worldwide and has had several chart-topping albums and singles in Ireland, throughout her astonishing career. This is Sharon's first performance at the Ennis Trad Festival and we are delighted to welcome her home.

Jack Dilleen

Sunday - Jack Dilleen took up the fiddle at the age of seven, which led him to one of the great fiddle players of Clare, Tara Breen, for tuition. Tara and Máire O'Keefe have been a huge influence on his fiddle playing journey. Jack's appearance at the Ennis Trad Festival is in partnership with Meitheal, a Summer School for high-competency young musicians, which awards them valued performance opportunities, at high profile events during the year.

Brighde Chaimbeul

Sunday - Brighde Chaimbeul is a leading purveyor of Celtic experimentalism and a master of the Scottish smallpipes. A native Gaelic speaker, her mesmerising musicianship has won her many awards and media recognition, including the BBC Young Folk Award and the BBC Horizon Award.

Tracy Ryan & Ryan O'Donnell

Sunday - Singer/Flute player Tracy Ryan and multi-instrumentalist Ryan O'Donnell, are currently working on a debut album of songs. Together on voice, bouzouki and flute, they will perform a range of traditional songs on the night.

Leonard Barry, Andy Morrow, Seamie O'Dowd & Kaitlin Cullen-Verhauz

Sunday - The Sligo-based trio of Leonard Barry, Andy Morrow and Seamie O'Dowd, have been stalwarts of the traditional scene, for many years. Joined by Kaitlin Cullen-Verhauz on cello, this performance promises to be full of “wonderful, memorable music, imbued with a sense of joy and amusement”.

Eoghan Ó Ceannabháin

Monday - Eoghan Ó Ceannabháin is a Dublin-based singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist. His songs, written in both Irish and English, build on his Sean-Nós singing foundations, creating a rich, contemporary sound. Eoghan was awarded “Singer of the Year” in the TG4 Gradam Ceoil 2024.

Gino Lupari, Tim Edey, Dermot Byrne & Gerry “Banjo” O'Connor

Monday - Individually, their accolades are too numerous to mention, but we are delighted to bring these four seminal musicians of the tradition, to the stage for this year's Finale Concert. Each of these phenomenal musicians bring explosive musicality, which is sure to see off the weekend with a bang!
